

For the Attention of Prep Class Students!

Due to the earthquake that occurred in Kahramanmaraş and surrounding cities on February 6, 2023, the University Senate took the following decisions: no obligation to attend classes between 6-17 February 2023, sharing the materials of the courses given between these dates, and postponing the measurement and evaluation activities planned between these dates to a later date*.

Re this decision, attendance will not be taken between February 6-17, 2023. On the other hand, the lessons will continue as planned at the beginning of Track 2. Course materials of Weeks 7 and 8 will be shared on Microsoft Teams by instructors who teach the regarding lesson/class. Lessons will continue with Week 9 schedule as of February 20, 2023. Even if the attendance will not be taken, it is highly suggested for our students to attend lessons as much as they can.

Updated assessment schedule is as follows:
